

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20202

In the Matter of

Docket No. 11-22-O

Cassandra,

Overpayment Proceeding

Respondent.

FINAL DECISION

On April 6, 2011, the Office of Management issue a notice to [Respondent] requesting the return of $1,885 in transit funds paid to her for the months of February 2007 through April 2007 and August 2007 through December 2008. The theory of the notice was that she was separated from employment from the Department on January 7, 2007, and, therefore, was not entitled to these benefits.

[Respondent] submitted earnings and leave statements that reflect her employment with the Department during the years 2007 and 2008 and a portion of 2009. She left the Department in January 31, 2009. Accordingly, she was entitled to receive the above transit benefits and does not owe a debt to the Department.
