ORDER AND NOTICE OF ORAL ARGUMENT

This Order requires counsel for both parties to appear in person on April 27, 2023, at 11:00 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, at the U.S. Department of Education (Department), Office of Hearings and Appeals, 550 12th Street, S.W., 10th Floor, Washington, DC 20024, for the purpose of presenting oral arguments in this matter. Oral arguments will be held for the parties to clarify the issues and their positions as presented in their written submissions.

Pending before me is Ashland University's (Ashland) Request for Review dated October 24, 2022. Both parties have filed briefs. In its reply brief, Ashland requested that oral arguments be scheduled. At my request, the parties filed a joint statement providing dates they are mutually available to appear for oral argument, which dates included April 27, 2023. In their joint statement, Ashland requested to appear for oral arguments in person and the Department requested to appear via TEAMS. Oral arguments will be held in person at OHA. 34 C.F.R. § 668.116.

Oral arguments will be heard at the Office of Hearings and Appeals, which is located at 550 12th Street, S.W., 10th Floor, Washington, DC 20024. Entry to the OHA is secured and requires presentation of photo identification to security personnel in the building lobby and an OHA escort from the building lobby to OHA. At least two days before oral arguments, Ashland should provide the OHA Clerk's office with a list of attorney(s) and other individuals who may attend the oral arguments, such list to be provided to security personnel in the building lobby.

SO ORDERED, this 5th day of April 2023.
