In the Matter of

BETH JACOB HEBREW TEACHERS COLLEGE

Respondent.

Docket No. 96-77-SP

Student Financial Assistance Proceeding
PRCN: 199620212347

---

REMAND ORDER

On March 17, 1997, Judge Richard I. Slippen rendered an Initial Decision in the above-captioned case finding Respondent liable for Pell Grant funds disbursed for students enrolled in its Jewish Culture Program during the 1990-1991 through the 1994-1995 award years.

On August 23, 1996, Judge Frank K. Krueger rendered an Initial Decision in the case In re Academy for Jewish Education, Docket No. 96-29-SP (1996). In re Academy for Jewish Education and the instant case involve similar facts and the same controlling statute, however, the court in Academy did not impose liability.

In light of these contradictory rulings, it is hereby ordered that the court provide further explanation for its decision to impose liability upon Respondent. Beth Jacob Hebrew Teachers College.
